

RETIREMENT

Living News

March 2023

It's not just an A or B option anymore. There are many more alternatives available other than.

A: The traditional independent living Retirement Village.

B: Over 50's Lifestyle Communities.

Most seniors are totally unaware there are 12 new and exciting retirement living options available to them today. It's widely acknowledged these innovative new alternatives are well overdue and have evolved due to seniors changing expectations for several reasons.

- 1. Fairness and affordability: Unfortunately, the traditional retirement village and over 50's lifestyle models have gone way past the point of "balance" or fairness and are no longer acceptable to a large sector of seniors or their families, their just not fair or affordable and don't represent value for money.
- 2. Expectations and flexibility: There is no, 'one size fits all', seniors deserve and expect more flexible lifestyle options.

It's wise to consider: If you are considering any retirement living options.

These new exciting alternatives are increasingly capturing more and more of the baby boomers at 70, as very viable alternatives worth considering for seniors looking for financial surety and peace of mind with unrivalled value for money.
